6 Key Questions | Matthew 21:1-46

Pastor Bob DuPar • February 6 - 12, 2022

Getting Started

What did you find most helpful from this week's sermon? Was anything confusing? Is there anything that needs clarification? Discuss as a group. If you haven't heard the sermon yet, you can access it at: www.cbcventura.org

Going Deeper

Re-read Matthew 21:1-46. Try comparing two different translations. Take some time as a group discussing your observations.

What was Jesus communicating through the events of Palm Sunday? Read Zechariah 9:9. How is Matthew unique from the other gospels in explaining the fulfillment of this prophecy?

What causes ignorance? How is failing to act upon what we know worse than not knowing?

Read Psalms 8:2. What phrase does Jesus leave out in His conversation with the religious leaders? What's the inference?

What prompts God's judgment? Talk about what's wrong with pretending to be something that we're not. How does abiding in Christ help?

How has fear prevented you from God's best? How has belief helped you to enjoy God & His blessings?

What's God's primary will for us? Discuss the Eugene Peterson quote:

*The Bible is not a book to carry around, read for information about God, or merely discuss. But rather, a voice to listen to and obey!
Fundamentally, it is a call: God calls us!*

What's the proper response to God's Son? What does it mean that Jesus is the cornerstone?

Application

How will you surrender to God and His will for you this week? Is there a specific truth that you need to acknowledge? A lie that you need to dispel? How will you do this ?
