Going Deeper

Read Proverbs 12:1 & 15:31-32. What do these verses teach us about correction? How does this relate to the sermon? Discuss as a group

Is shame bad? What's the difference between toxic shame and healthy shame? Give examples of both. Share a personal experience of either.

Read Romans 8:1, 33-34. What does Scripture say about condemnation?

Read John 21:1-23. How does Jesus model healthy correction with Simon Peter in this passage? What lessons can we learn?

How can we experience shame (vs. running from it) and yet stay relationally connected (w/ God & others) at the same time? How does this help us grow?

What 3 images of healthy correction were discussed in the sermon? Have you experienced any of these? Explain

Meditate upon your group identity this week by reading (and re-reading) 1 Peter 2:9-10! Consider committing this passage to memory!
