

Small Group Questions – For the Week of February 15, 2026

1. This week we leaned into our identity as children of God. What was your relationship with your family like growing up? How does comparing God to a Father impact your understanding of Him?
2. When you're getting to know someone, how do you usually introduce yourself (occupation, hobbies, family role, etc.)? What does that reveal about where you find your identity?
3. Does anyone have a fun babysitter or substitute teacher story to share? Why does Paul compare the law to a guardian or manager in Galatians 3–4?
4. Discuss Paul's view of the law in Galatians 3–4.
 - What was the purpose of the law?
 - Was the law good?
 - How could something good become an instrument of slavery?
 - Based on your study and general understanding, what were the functions of the Mosaic Law?
5. Thinking through Galatians so far, what were some of the things enslaving the Galatian church? What are some things that can enslave us today?
6. What is the significance of being a child of God? How has understanding your position as God's child changed the way you see yourself?
7. How would you explain to a non-Christian what it takes to become a child of God?
8. What is at stake if we return to slavery?
9. In your spiritual journey right now, do you feel more like a slave or a son (or daughter)? Why? What would practically change this week if you truly believed you are an heir — fully accepted, fully secure, fully loved?
10. After studying Galatians 3:26–4:7, what are some important next steps for you personally? Are there any areas you sense God inviting you to step out of slavery and into deeper sonship right now?
