

Small Group Questions: For the Week of May 31, 2026

1. What stood out to you most from this week's message on the Holy Spirit?
2. As we've gone through the Nicene Creed series, what has surprised you, encouraged you, or challenged you the most so far?

Read John 16:5–16

3. Before diving into the details, what stands out to you most as you read this passage?
4. Jesus is preparing His disciples for His departure. How do you think they were feeling as He shared these things with them?
If you were in their shoes, what emotions do you think you would have been wrestling with?
How do you usually respond during seasons of transition, uncertainty, or change?
5. In your own words, what is Jesus trying to teach His disciples in this section?
6. What do you notice about the way the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are all working together in this passage?
7. Read verses 8–11. What stands out to you about the work of the Holy Spirit in these verses?
8. When it comes to conviction of sin, what role belongs to the Holy Spirit and what role, if any, belongs to us?
How can we point people toward truth without trying to take the Holy Spirit's place?
9. Of the different roles of the Holy Spirit described in this passage, which one do you most appreciate or need in your life right now? Why?

Read Acts 2:1–13

10. What stands out to you most about the events that take place in Acts 2?
11. In what ways do these verses fulfill Jesus' promises in John 16?
12. What Jewish celebration was taking place when God sent the Holy Spirit in Acts 2?
What celebration was taking place during Jesus' death and resurrection?
Why do you think God sovereignly chose these moments in history?
13. The Holy Spirit has been active since the beginning of creation, so what is unique or significant about what happens in Acts 2?
14. If you had been present during the events of Acts 2, do you think you would have responded more like the people in verse 12 or verse 13? Why?

Application

15. What practices, rhythms, or habits help you stay connected to God and attentive to His leading?
16. Are there any spiritual disciplines or patterns you feel led to return to, strengthen, or begin in this season?
17. What might it look like for you personally to walk more in step with the Holy Spirit this week?